WATER CONSERVATION IS KEY

Entering into its fourth year, the statewide drought continues to get worse and water storage levels are dropping. Water conservation is key, especially in the hot summer months. We can all do our part to save as much water as possible. Here are some helpful hints to reduce your water usage.

Cut water usage during your morning routine. Shortening showers can save up to 2.5 gallons per minute and fixing a leaky toilet can conserve up to 50 gallons a day.

In the kitchen, there are a lot of ways to save water. Only run the dishwasher when it is full, as this can save up to 4 gallons of water per load. Also, when washing dishes, turning off the water when you are not using it can help save 2.5 gallons per minute.

Did you know that outdoor water of lawns and gardens makes up approximately 60% of home water use? Limiting your outdoor watering hours and duration can dramatically reduce your overall water usage.

As a result of the ongoing drought, the State Water Resources Control Board has implemented outdoor water restriction to encourage conserving more water. The restrictions prohibit the following:

- Washing down driveways and sidewalks with potable (drinking) water.
- Causing runoff as a result of excess outdoor watering.
- Using a hose to wash a motor vehicle, unless the hose is fitted with a shut-off nozzle.
- Using potable (drinking) water in a fountain or decorative water feature, unless the water is recirculated.

The two water districts that service Laguna Hills, the El Toro Water District and the Moulton Niguel Water District, also continue to take steps to expand the use of recycled water throughout the City. For more information on water conservation efforts, take a moment to visit the water districts' websites at: www.etwd.com and www.mnwd.com

With everyone working together we can ensure plenty of safe, sustainable water for future generations in Southern California

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Bring a blanket or your lawn chairs for the 3rd Annual Shakespeare in the Hills' outdoor performance of one of William Shakespeare's greatest comedies by On The Edge Theatre Productions (www.otetheatre.com).

Magic, love spells, and an enchanted forest encompass the world of one of Shakespeare's most famous and beloved comedies. When four young lovers take to the woods of Athens, their lives become entangled with a feud between the King and Queen of the Fairies, and a group of local workers rehearsing a play for the Duke of Athens' wedding banquet. The result is a marvelous mix-up of desire, whimsy, heartache, and farce, all touched by Shakespeare's inimitable vision of life, love and the tantalizing reality of our most fantastical dreams.

Snacks and refreshments will be available for purchase at this family event. All participants of age 12 and under must be accompanied by a paying adult. Tickets are sold (cash only) on the day of each show. You may also purchase your ticket early online. No refunds or transfers for this event.
